ALMA MATER

Among the hills of time,
There stands a school so fair,
As pure as the sky above,
With all the stars up there,
And when we bow to thee, dear Fairmont
State,
Our hearts with rapture thrill
So here's to the school we love,
The College "on the hill."

JUNIORS

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Nancy Belt, Secretary; Faye Miller, Vice President; Nick Corral, President.

The class sponsored Miss Wilma Queen as their candidate for homecoming this year. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Minter Queen of Nutter Fort, West Virginia. Miss Queen is an active member of the Tri Sigma sorority, the Masquers, and is Vice President of Marrow Hall. Her major is elementary education.

The highlight of the yearly festivities for members of the Junior Class is the Junior Prom which they sponsor. The Prom was held March 30 in the Fairmont Hotel Ball Room. Music for dancing was provided by the Richard Lewis Orchestra from 9:00 to 12:00.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

Joe Yambrick, Sergeant-at-Arms; Eugene Meale, President; Joe Bove, Vice President; Barbara Lemley, Secretary.

The freshman class has been very active this year. It started off with Freshman orientation which included Freshman Week, teas, Freshman Court, and the Freshman Mixer.

In October the class entered a float in the Dad's Day parade. The Dad's Day Festivities were considered a great success.

The class also sponsored the annual Falcon Fund Drive. This drive is held to raise money which is contributed to worthy charities.

The climax of the year was the selection of Miss Anna Margaret Stanley to represent the class at the Homecoming Dance. All in all the freshmen had an active and exciting year, and they are looking forward to the next one with enthusiasm.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

Sigma Sigma Sigma, founded at Longwood College, Virginia, in 1898, and a member of the National Panhellenic Conference, installed Alpha Kappa Chapter on this campus in 1930.

Tri Sigma aims to develop character, scholarship, citizenship and spiritual consciousness among its members. Through good companionship, charm school, harmony hour, and other integrated programs that encourage the personal development of individual members, Tri Sigma gives a design for living and worthwhile standards of social relationships.

Some of Tri Sigma's yearly projects are: a pledge tea, Sigma Fall Ball, Hobo Dance, Alumnae-Active dinner, Founder's Day Banquet, and spring formal. They are also a member of the Big Six organization.

Officers are: President, Charlotte Walker; Vice President, Jane Talbott; Secretary, Donna Hoult; Treasurer, Barbara Gennery; Advisors, Miss Marple and Mrs. Lucie Margaret Gribble.

The Music Educator's National Conference is one of the younger professional organizations on the campus having organized in 1949. The purpose is to afford students opportunity for cooperative and reciprocal professional development while still in school with a view to the benefits to be derived by the students themselves and the professional organizations as a whole.

More specific purposes are to develop a practical, realistic concept of the educational profession as gained from the student's actual participation in programs, demonstrations, discussions, performing groups, not only in the state, divisional and national meetings of the professional organization but in the on-campus activities of the chapter group as well. The MENC also provides opportunities to become acquainted with the leaders in music education and general education. The Fairmont College chapter holds monthly meetings during the school year, sponsors projects, such as visiting artists, and aids in any way to promote better music education.

The officers are: President, Robert Haynes; Vice President, Jane White; Secretary, Faye Miller; Treasurer, James Atha; Sponsor, Mary B. Price.

CHOIR

The choir members have performed for many audiences this year. Their activities included singing for an assembly at Lumberport High School, presenting their annual Christmas program, and singing for the Alumni Banquet at Homecoming. They also sang for the Conference of Regional Secondary School Principals.

Several trips to area high schools to present assembly programs were made during the spring season.

Two assembly programs and the Spring Concert were given for the entertainment of the college faculty and students. One of the local radio stations closes each day of broadcasting with the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" by the F.S.C. Choir. By taking part in a variety of activities. the choir plays a tremendous part in making Fairmont State College a school of public note and interest.

ACTIVITIES

HOMECOMING QUEEN AND COURT

The annual Homecoming was held on campus on February 16. The many activities which helped the "Old Grads" get acquainted were the reception held in the student union, the alumni banquet, the basketball game with West Virginia Wesleyan, and the Homecoming Dance, held in the Blue Room.

The climax of the evening was the crowning of Miss Betty Sue Dugan, sophomore class representative, as Homecoming Queen. Members of her court were Anna Margaret Stanley of the freshman class, Wilma Queen of the junior class, and Charlotte Walker of the senior class.

DAD'S DAY

The Sophomore Class again sponsored the annual Dad's Day festivities in October of 1956. The winning float was the Sigma Sigma Sigma entry. The second and third places were won by Gamma Chi Chi and Sigma Tau Gamma.

The Falcon Band led the parade through the streets of downtown Fairmont, followed by the floats and area high school bands. The West Fairmont High School band was judged the most outstanding, and received the Tau Beta Iota trophy.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is a composite group of representatives of all the elements of the student body. Included in the Council are: The five student body officers, the president of each class, a Pan-Hellenic representative, a non-fraternity representative, a representative from the honorary and professional societies, and the advisor who is appointed by the President of the college.

The Student Council plays a very important role at Fairmont State College. It distributes the funds collected through the Student Activities Fee. The Council sponsors several dances throughout the school year and numerous other activities. The Student Council also has charge of the annual Homecoming celebration.

COLUMNS STAFF

The Columns, the college newspaper published about every two weeks, is written and edited by students interested in journalism. Some are majoring in journalism and others work on the newspaper just as a college activity.

The Columns is exchanged with hundreds of other schools, other publications, and copies are sent to former students, faculty members, and alumni.

All staff members are eligible for membership in the Journalism Club.
